Introduction

We are pleased to present the following information to assist you in planning your catered affairs. Mr. T's Catering and T & J Food Service takes care of both your business and personal needs effectively.

All breakfasts, luncheons, dinners and receptions must be ordered at least two (2) weeks in advance in order for proper planning to be made. Catering services are not just food; there a number of variables to consider in preparation for your catered event.

T & J and their entire staff look forward to exceeding your expectations, and working with you to make your catered event pleasant, stress-free and successful.
